In the Autumn statement George Osborne announced changes to the stamp duty paid when people buy a house. Currently people pay stamp duty on the whole cost of a property, in future it will only be paid on the amount over each threshold.

The new system means that stamp duty will be reduced on properties costing less than £937,500, and will be increased on properties costing more than £937,500.

Since 2012 Universities in England and Wales can charge tuition fees of up to £9000. Do you think this is or is not value for money?
Is value for money - the standard of education and the increased wages graduates earn mean it is worth the money	19	22	37	15	25	27	35	17	19	26	18	16	19	22	27	23	21	22	24	26	17	20
Is not value for money - the standard of education and the wages graduates earn are not enough to warrant the cost	64	62	51	73	64	60	48	72	69	57	67	72	66	61	56	64	60	58	61	62	69	53
